

6516208607.txt

I appreciate having this information available for me when I travel in my car. It is nice to have the information right there when entering into a city such as Pittsburgh, Pa. What is it hurting for us to have that information at hand no matter what radio we are listening to? What is happening to our freedom here in the USA?